Right now, I'm in a trio with some Spanish Elders in my room. I went to their Spanish class this morning and I won a Spanish Kahoot? Lowkey so embarrassing for them. But I was able to go the whole class in Portuguese, which was cool

John

Like in Spanish, Carrot is Zanahoria(spelling??) But in Portuguese, it's Cenoura, so that was definitely an assist from Cisne right there

John

I got a 4.5 on the EI! I think it was either tied for 3rd or 4th in the class. I feel good about it, but I know there's a lot I could've done better

John

It goes from 0.1-10

John

So 4.5 is like an intermediate score, good for 5 weeks

John

One of the Elders got a 6.0, but he's fluent in Spanish so a lot of that transferred over
